

Visual Resources Librarian, Department of Art and Art History, University of Richmond, Richmond, VA

The University of Richmond (www.richmond.edu) is a nationally ranked liberal arts university offering a unique combination of undergraduate and graduate programs through its schools of arts and sciences, business, leadership studies, law and continuing studies, with approximately 3,000 undergraduate students.

The Department of Art and Art History is seeking an individual to oversee the analog and digital image collections with the ultimate goal of transitioning these resources to a fully digital collection with University-wide accessibility. Additionally the Visual Resources Librarian is a subject specialist liaison between the University library and the Department of Art and Art History. A combination of the following skill sets are required: Photoshop CS, scanning software, knowledge of imaging standards, Microsoft Office Suite including Word, Excel, Power Point and Access; Image and/or graphic cataloging, VRA Core 3.0, CCO, XML, knowledge of applicable vocabularies including the AAT, TGN, ULAN, AACR2; A/V equipment including digital cameras, projectors and monitors. MFA Degree in Art History or Fine Arts, MLS or MSLS required. Applications will be accepted until July 11, 2008. To view complete job description/requirements and to apply visit www.urjobs.org. UR welcomes applications from diverse candidates and candidates who support diversity. EOE